

NASA Houston Space Center in Clear Lake

Organized Tour Using a Charter Bus for Transportation

With more than 400 things to see and do, including a variety of ever-changing exhibits, films and four live shows, Space Center Houston is a must do destination.

Cost: $40

- A must see is the international landmark Independence Plaza, presented by Boeing. Touch interactive displays, see NASA artifacts and learn about the legacy of the space shuttle program.
- We may Meet an Astronaut and hear fascinating stories about their space adventures.
- Learn how astronauts live and work aboard the International Space Station in the Living in Space presentation. Explore the technology developed by NASA and other in the International Space Station Gallery.
- Watch a film in Space Center Theater with stunning 4K ultra-high definition, new audio and an all-new-giant screen.
- Get NASA updates and learn about future NASA programs and missions in the Mission Briefing Center.
- See flown spacecraft such as Apollo 17, walk through Skylab Trainer and touch an actual moon rock in the Starship Gallery.
- Board the NASA Tram Tour and see history in the making. Stops include the newly restored Apollo Mission Control Center, astronaut training facilities and Rocket Park, where you will see the enormous Saturn V rocket.
- If time allows and we can get tickets on a first come first served basis we may be able to visit the Apollo Mission Control Center. No guarantees for this one.