HOW TO TALK MINNESOTAN— “Whatever” expresses emotional turmoil of many varieties and is used when “you betcha” won’t do. It expresses disappointment, as when your boss says, “Your work is good, but we have to let you go.” And you say, “WHATEVER.” Or resignation, as when your husband says, “My crazy sister is coming to stay with us for a few months while her house is being remodeled.” And you sigh, “WHATEVER”
